Achmea Bank implements EuroPort+ of Able

TILBURG – Achmea Bank has implemented EuroPort+ as a new system for the administration of savings products and payments.

EuroPort+ is an administrative platform for wealth management. The implementation of this new system will enable Achmea Bank to improve customer service levels and achieve structural cost reductions. Able is the developer of the system. They supply EuroPort+ as a an online service (SaaS)

Pierre Huurman (Achmea Bank): "The teams of Achmea bank and Able worked closely together to implement EuroPort+ and connect it to our own IT systems and web portals. This allows us to put even more emphasis on excellent service delivery so that we can serve our customers even better".

Alex Timmermans (Able BV): "We have invested a lot in online services over the past period. Consequently our technology is at the forefront in connectivity to modern customer portals. This will help banks to compete in the online world. Achmea Bank's choice for EuroPort+ is a confirmation that we have made the right choices in our technological roadmap".

Achmea Bank currently services a savings portfolio of around 5 billion Euro. Further financial details will not be disclosed.
